FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14

THEATRE // 20.00 – 20.30

Monzado is a theater-/dance-performance by Marieke Vingerhoets showing the different aspects of the production chain of the multinational: genetical modification, lobbyism and the exploitation of man and earth that come with Monzado's search for maximum profit. A group of young people (14 to 23 years) will perform four scenes from the original play.

My saints look different by Gerindo Kartadinata is a solo performance on our perception of nature and Monsanto's continuation of warfare against people and the planet.

OPEN MIC // 20.30 – 21.30

During the open mic, everyone is invited to share their musical talents. Do you have a fierce protest song, can you mobilize a crowd with your chants or do you just want to chime in? Our good friends Hans van Scharen and Thanasis Kleopas will break the ice with their sweet sounds on guitar, saxophone and the traditional greek lyra. Feel free to join!

PRINT AND POSTER WORKSHOP // 19.30 – 21.30

INLAND NL artists and farming activists will exhibit banners and flags against agribusiness, GMOs and for agroecology they have made during that day. They will also discuss and present the list of rural locations in which artists will be working during 2017 in the Netherlands. An alliance to make a cultural strategy on rural living and in support of a living countryside. INLAND NL is an extension of INLAND project in collaboration with Casco – Office for Art, Design and Theory – Utrecht, engages territories, culture and social change. They will be conducted by artist Merel Zwarts and Fernando Garcia Dory.
